

Run Away Rachel

It all started on a half day when I had my best friends (name of friend) and (name of friend) over. We were playing with my guinea pig Rachel when ...it happened! It started when (name of friend) , (name of friend) and I got hungry and went into the kitchen. We were dressed up in black like burglars because we wanted to steal some cookies. When we found the cookies we ate what was left of them. Then we went back to check on Rachel. When we got back her pen was empty! I couldn't believe my eyes! I only had Rachel for two days and now she ran away! I FELT LIK I WAS GOING TO EXPLODE MY DAD IS GOING TO KILL ME! (name of friend) , (name of friend) , and I looked everywhere but we couldn't find her. Then I saw something move under the T.V. cabinet and I knew who it was. I quickly crawled under the T.V and pulled out a big, fat, puffy guinea pig. It was Rachel! I put the little furrball into her blanket and kept an eye on her until (name of friend) and (name of friend) had to go home.

After they went home I put her back in her pen and she climbed over the bars so I knew what had happened. Run away Rachel!
